

April Newsletter 2015

Spring has finally sprung! Hippy, Hoppity, Easter's on its way. Our monthly themes are Easter, Author: Karen Beaumont, Ducks, Earth & Flowers. Please let me know if you have any ideas/activities that you'd like to add. This is your opportunity to contribute input into curriculum planning each month.

Our Easter party and egg hunt will be this Wednesday, April 1st. Feel free to send a treat if you want, but don't feel obligated. I will provide candy and the eggs. Please send an Easter basket for your child. We are closed Friday, April 3rd for Good Friday. Please make sure your payments are here no later than Thursday, April 2nd.

I will not be attending my sister's wedding in June. She wants to keep it a small affair with just my mom and dad. They are going to the courthouse and having a larger wedding next year. This is a second wedding for both of them. I think I will use my last vacation day for a Thursday garage sale sometime before May 31st. I will let you know at least two weeks in advance.

Thursday, April 9th – We are taking a fieldtrip to the Wichita Children's Theater to see "The Three Little Kittens" – 201 S. Lulu. We will load up to go at 9:00am. We will need to be there at 9:45am. The show will be starting at 10:00am. We are going to Ci Ci's Pizza for lunch following the program. We would love to have you join us! Please send $6 for this event.

Reminder: Contracts are due by May 1st. I will be handing them out next week sometime. There were no significant changes to the contract. If your schedule is changing for the summer than I will be giving you a summer-only contract. Please return the entire contract including the front cover page. Make sure you have initials by all the x's. I will then sign them and return them to you.

I will be losing additional students in May for the summer. Please spread the word I am interviewing now. I have three spots to fill in total! I have one opening now, one May 18th and one by end of May. I am looking for students 18 months to 5 years of age. I will give a free night of childcare to anyone that sends me a client that signs a contract. I was sad to have Landon leave us and will miss Jessica and Remy. I do hope to have them come back to visit us!

F.Y.I.... I have one vacation day and two emergency days remaining for the fiscal year ending May 31st, 2015. My five vacation days and five emergency days will renew June 1st, 2015.
